

Liz MacRae - Bio

It is quite likely you have seen Liz in films or on TV shows, or heard her voice on numerous creative projects. She got 'bit by the acting bug' early in her life, and has been one of the established 'go to' talents since she was in her teens. Most of her work has been done in and around Montreal and has been seen and heard around the world.

Her work includes hundreds of well-known TV and radio commercial voiceovers, animated cartoon voices, games, documentary films, corporate and pharmaceutical narrations.

She is a performer known for her versatility, and has also enjoyed on-camera roles in many films, TV series and television commercials.

Some examples are:

Liz worked with William Hurt in 'The Blue Butterfly', Katie Holmes in 'Abandon', and Beau Bridges in 'Million Dollar Babies' to name a few of the projects she's been a part of.

Liz was heard voicing (dubbing) the roles of actresses Catherine Wilkening and Louise Portal in the English versions of Denys Arcand's Oscar nominated films 'Jesus of Montreal' and 'The Decline of The American Empire'.

Liz was honored to be chosen as narrator of the audio guide for the exhibition 'Once upon a Time Walt Disney' held at The Montreal Museum of Fine Arts.

Films that Liz narrated for the celebrated documentary film company 'Alter Cine' on the massacres in Rwanda, have won international awards.

She has also sung on many children's recordings including the popular children's CDs 'Caillou's Favorite Songs' and also 'Madeline's Favorite Songs'.

Liz has a passion for her work and strives for excellence in all she does. Perhaps that's why so many clients choose to work with her time and time again.

Another one of Liz's passions is to help others, and she has several charities close to her heart, especially 'The Kidney Foundation of Canada'. She also leads a committee for traffic safety in her town, to help make the streets safer for children and families. Liz brings a positive attitude to all she does and she feels that her work allows her to play every day!
